

I MISS THOSE DAYS WHEN I'D PLOP INTO NEW STORES AND VISIT MULTIPLE SHOPS WITH MY DAD. WE'D BE HANDED OVER A BOX OF SWEETS AND A BENGALI CALENDER!

— Isha Saha

ISHAA SAHA'S NABOBORSHO LOOK DECODED

I have styled Isha in a beautiful black and red jamdani sari with golden zari borders that she has worn with a brick-red blouse. This is an ideal look for evening adda on Naboborsho. The beautiful statement earrings go well with the sari. Hair pulled back in a bun is just what we needed to complete the look. The smudged kajal and bindi are adding to beauty of the look.

— Neel Saha, stylist

an offbeat colour. Try d, golden and black blue ss jewellery are on. A combination of with your outfit pastel hues

with straight pants. row on a solid- For makeup, stick

Surja Dutta, Siddharth Pathak and Pritisha Kalita

Kolkata dignitaries enjoy over good music and food

Kolkata is back to hosting parties and gatherings as Covid-related restrictions were withdrawn on April 1. On Saturday, dignitaries from different walks of life let their hair down at a city club at the Kolkata Race Course. Fusion sufi band Wagah Road belted out popular numbers as guests, members from the consulate, Army, Air Force and Navy, enjoyed over scrumptious food and wine.

While talking about the turnout, the secretary of the club, Shivaji Dutt, said, "We have hosted the Club Nite after a gap of almost three years. It was encouraging to see over 200 guests joining in. This will now be a regular event in our calendar."

Sameera Piperno and Enrico Piperno

Amit Chaturvedi and Manfred Auster

Captain Rajeev Jha and Col Rajeev Kumar

Shivaji Dutt and Col Navneet Singh

Momi Borah

Major General Narinder Singh, MG ASC Eastern Command, his son and Air vice-marshal AK Bhardwaj

Srijani and