Tr. Patrick Quinn when afforded an opportunity to explain the improved performance of his charge b g DUBAI DUNES which finished 2nd today as compared to its previous start in Race No. 9 – The Aboline Handicap run on 19th November, 2022, stated that :-

- a) In the Monsoon Meeting in Race No. 56 my charge ran a good 3rd, the common horse INDIAN TIGER finished off board on that occasion.
- b) In Race No. 9 my charge drawn on the outside, was slow to begin, brushed the gates and dropped the bit struggling to keep up with the field.
- c) I put up a better rider today, my charge was drawn 1 but the rider reported that even today the gelding was running in snatches and not galloping fluently in the straight.
- d) I fancied both my horses today which were 1st and 2nd favourites in the race and I am happy to have finished 1st and 2nd.

Whilst noting the explanations tendered, Tr. Patrick Quinn was advised to ensure that there is a degree of consistency in the performance of his charges, failing which appropriate action will be initiated.
